Critical Infrastructure Industry – Essential Business – Life Sustaining Business

At Taylor Freezer of Michigan we are working to keep our employees and our customers safe. We are continuing operations per the President's Coronavirus Guidelines for America, and Governor Whitmer's Executive Order. Our employees provide critical services to the foodservice industry and supply chain. (See attached documentation) Our employees provide essential deliveries, services, and parts to commercial foodservice operations. These businesses include; Convenience Stores, Grocery Stores, Drive-thru Operations, Hospitals, Food banks, Fast Casual, Senior Care Facilities, and other restaurants currently open for business. We also service the food processing industry, critical to the backbone of the food supply chain.

To the best of our knowledge on this date, our business fits within the definitions of "critical infrastructure industry/worker," "essential business," or "life sustaining business" under shelter in place orders and other similar orders in every jurisdiction in which we operate.

Our staff is taking precautions using sanitary procedures on all tools, equipment, and supplies to mitigate risks. We have also adopted social distancing and a no tolerance sick policy.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at 616.453.6004.

Sincerely,

Adam Senica
